Hyperion

The comic opera, "Prince Pro Tem," recognized as the finest production of pearance to-night at the Hyperion will, a doubt, be received with a bumper The company, which is a first class one, is backed by a good chorus and every lover of tuneful light opera and good, honest, clean humor, which includes many topical hits, should not fail to see "Prince Pro Tem." Of Mr. Fred Lennox, that prince of comedians, all that need be said is that he could scarcely be improved upon, and Miss Josle Sadler is more charming and humorous, if possible, than ever. W. S. Reeves is manager. Sale of seats now

"The Amazons" will be presented at the Hyperion on Tuesday evening next Miss Johnstone Bennett makes a very pretty and hoydenish boy, leaps a barred gate, smokes cigarettes and carries her wling piece with an air that is deightful. Her figure lends itself well to sale attire, and she makes an engagng pleture, besides acting with vivacity and rare discretion. The last act of the play is the Castlefordan gymnasium where the ladies, under the direction of 'Sergeant" Shuter, are made to practice. Johnstone Bennett turns out to be the only real athlete of the lot, and swings clubs in a truly manly fashion. The girls and their sweethearts engage n a dance, and are surprised in the act by their mother and the rector, but eace is restored, the boys turn to girls and all ends happily. The complete is as follows:

Lady Wilhelmina Belturbet ...

... Harriet Aubrey Miriam, Marchioness of Castlejordam 'Sergeant' Shuter.....Louise Rial Barrington, Viscount Litterly ..

.... George Allson Andre, Count de Grival..... Galfred, Earle of Tweensways.....

Lorimer Stoddard Rev. Rodger Minchin ... John Findlay Fitton, a gamekeeper ... Vaughn Glaser Orts, a poacher A.W.Gregory

A great attraction comes Saturday vening in the appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, who appear in the new comedy, "A White Lie," from the pen of Sydney Grundy. It is a fine example f that bright author's ability dramatist, as he has given to Mr. and Mrs. Kendal characters that are pecularly adapted to their talents,

The doors of the Grand Opera house will be thrown open this evening, when the thousands who have been waiting for the advent of the Great European Circus and Midwinter Carnival will make their way to the ticket office and | might prepare their defense. secure the magic talisman that enables them to pass the alert ticket taker. The organization is not a new one, it was projected in the year 1883 by Manager G. B. Bunnell and his then business associates, Messrs. Foshay and June, and improved and brought into good shape by Colonel George O. Starr, but the intervention of many other great amusement enterprises caused it to be shelved for a future day. day has now arrived and to-night will see the consummation of this great event in amusement enterprises. must be seen to be believed, this mon-ster show to which both hemispheres have contributed their best artists to make it the show of shows, where the KIMBERLY, ROOT & DAY, sented in the program, activities of the program, activities and many other artists, acrobats, jugglers, pantomine artists, acrobats, jugglers, pantomine clowns, musical artists and many othe novelties too numerous to describe in a pen and ink sketch, but nevertheless great assistance in completing this nammoth amusement congress. exhibition. Poli's Wonderland Theater. The great Poli has surpassed himself this week in the extraordinary aggre gation of vaudeville talent offered. As a leading attraction he presents the great Arabian circus, in which Sheik Hadj Tahar's troupe of twelve Moorish and Bedouin Arabs perform the athletic and acrobatic exercises which General Lew Wallace has immortalized in his picturesque tale of "Ben Hur." These Arabs were seen by New Haven people last summer at Ambrose Park South Brooklyn, where they were the ending attraction of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Among the great vaudeville artists engaged are Miss Norma Wills, whose sweet singing is known from one end of the continen to the other, and Mr. Collins, the Cali-fornia trio, Miss Maude Raymond, Frank Riley, the Hill sisters, George Austin, Mays and Hunter, and Gracle and Reynolds. Big crowds again at Wonderland this week.

At the meeting of Commonwealth lodge No. 69, A. O. U. W., to-morrow vening in Odd Fellows' hall, Crown street, several new members will be initiated. The initiatory exercises will be conducted by the officers and members of Israel Putnam lodge,

Your Wife's Cough

needs attention. Don't neglect it be-cause she don't complain. Delays are dangerous. Disease does not stand still. The little cough grows in volume: soon a thick, yellowish matter is expec-torated; loss of strength and flesh fol-low; pus is developed, then hemorrhages and the glassy stare of the eye, which is the beginning of the end. This is how consumption runs its pace. Be warned consumption runs its pace. Be warned in time. When the first symptoms appear
